6. Hessian Barracks, Clarke Pl. Located on the grounds of the Maryland School for the Deaf. Here German prisoners of war were interred during the Revolutionary War. Clarke Pl., a two block long street of beautiful Victorian homes also has two notable homes. #4 Clarke Pl. is now the Hollarstowne Hill B & B, and was once the home of the well known belly dancer Nazife. The famous Papillon, Tiki, as well resided there for many years. Facing #4, go 3 houses down to the left to a large grey house. This house was the home of the commander of the troops that raised the flag over Iwo Jima in WWII. A photo was taken of the soldiers raising the flag, and this famous photo became a statue honoring the bravery of our troops.
